

It is crucial that you read the material in the textbook thoroughly before our class discussion about it. You are also invited to re-read the chapter during or after our class discussion about it. Go through the examples with a paper and pencil in your hand. On the slips below, write a question about the chapter material you didn't understand or about an extension of it. If your signature is hard to read, please also add your printed name.

I have read chapter 1 thoroughly. On the back is written a question I would like you (Larry) to answer about something I didn't understand or need clarification on in the chapter or about some extension or application of the chapter material.
