

ENGLISH 2230

Classic Myths & Folk Tales

"Sing in me, Muse, and through me tell the story"

*—Homer, *The Odyssey

Explore some of the longest enduring stories mankind has ever told--including myths told by Homer, Sophocles, Hesiod, and Virgil, as well as the folktales of the Grimm Brothers. ENGL 2230 will analyze art and literature depicting gods, heroes, monsters, wars, and marriages--all in an attempt to better understand life, humanity, good, evil, love, and death.

Kade Parry — ENGL 2230: Classic Myths & Folk Tales — Spring 2020