- Jazz I Concert: The Sept. 14th concert will feature a double bill consisting of Snow College's new Jazz Orchestra I conducted by trombonist James Burton III, along with the U.O. Project, a quintet founded by drummer, Ulysses Owens, showcasing some of the greatest young jazz musicians in the world today. Ulysses is currently touring with Multiple Grammy nominated artists Christian McBride and Kurt Elling; who have been performing in venues nationally and internationally. In addition to Ulysses, the group consists of saxophonist Tim Green, pianist Sullivan Fortner, bassist Matthew Rybicki and vocalist Alicia Olatuja. They can all be heard on a new recording entitled, the U.O. Project: "It's Time for U." The Snow College jazz department is excited to have such amazing artists in residence to kick off our 2010-2011 concert season.
- Arsenic and Old Lace, by Joseph Kesselring Director: Kim Christison
September 29-30, and October 1-2, 2010
A delightful combination of the farcical and the macabre, we are "charmed" by two elderly sisters who are famous in their Brooklyn neighborhood for their numerous acts of charity. Unfortunately, however, their charity includes poisoning lonely old men who come to their home looking for lodging. The two women are assisted in their crimes by their mentally challenged nephew who believes he is Teddy Roosevelt and who frequently blasts a bugle and yells "charge" as he bounds up the stairs. Matters get complicated when a second nephew, a theater critic, discovers the murders and a third nephew appears after having just escaped from a mental institution. In his adroit mixture of comedy and mayhem, Kesselring satirizes the charitable impulse as he pokes fun at the conventions of the theater.
- Choral Concert: The 3rd Annual Rock & Roll Choir Show
Takin' it to the Streets: Featuring: A Capella Choir, Cadence and Encore with Special Guests: Phat Old Professors and Friends. Tuesday, September 28th, 7:30 pm. Join the A Capella Choir, Encore, and Cadence and the Phat Old Professors for an evening of classic rock and roll. Featuring the music of The Doobie Brothers, Supertramp, The Beatles, and America, plus many others. The concert is a tribute to music with a "road" theme. Be sure to get your tickets early, because last year's show was "standing room only".

If you have any questions or if you would like to reserve tickets call the Snow College Box Office at (435) 283-7472 or (435) 283-7478
